Special Olympics St Albans Athletics Coach

Salary: £15.00 p/h (Level 2 Athletics Coach)

Closing Date: Friday 10th February 2012

Special Olympics St Albans is seeking a dedicated Level 2 athletics coach. The successful applicant would take on the role of Head Athletics Coach within Special Olympics St Albans, which is part of the St Albans Arts, Sport & Health Development Team.

Special Olympics is a well established national charity, providing an opportunity for people with a learning disability to become more active and lead a healthy lifestyle and take part in local, regional, national and international athletic competitions. The role of Head Athletics Coach would predominantly focus on providing sporting opportunities for an 8+ age group with a learning disability. It would be preferable for the successful applicant to have experience of working with people with special needs, but not essential. They would be expected to deliver a weekly athletics programme to include competition training in track and field events and health and physical activity.

The successful applicant must be highly motivated, dedicated and be available to attend ad hoc athletic competitions during the weekends throughout the year.

If you are interested in this exciting and challenging position, please contact Susi Williams for a job description, full person specification and application form.

NB: Only full applications will be accepted for this position. CV's will not be used for the short-listing process.
